ROYAL SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES

HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE MEDAL NOMINATION FORM

The Society's History and Philosophy of Science Medal is awarded each year to recognise outstanding achievement in the History and Philosophy of Science with preference being given to the study of ideas, institutions, and individuals of significance to the practice of the natural sciences in Australia.

The Royal Society of NSW History and Philosophy of Science Medal was established in 2013 to recognize outstanding achievement in the History and Philosophy of Science. It was first awarded in 2014.

Persons nominated will have made a significant contribution to the understanding of the history and philosophy of science, with preference being given to the study of ideas, institutions and individuals of significance to the practice of the natural sciences in Australia.

Self-nomination is not allowed.

All Royal Society of New South Wales awards are assessed relative to opportunity.

This award is for individuals or teams. In the case of a team nomination please supply the CV of the team leader and an additional document detailing the contributions of each member of the team.

Please complete the details on this form and return together with a curriculum vitae and attached letters of nomination and support to awards-nominations@royalsoc.org.au by 30th September 2021.

All entries should be accompanied by a full curriculum vitae and include a one-page statement setting out the case for award. The agreement of the nominee must be obtained by the nominator before submission and included with the entry. The winner will be expected to submit an unpublished essay, drawing on recent work, which will be considered for publication in the Society's Journal and Proceedings during the following year.
