ROYAL SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES

THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES MEDAL NOMINATION FORM

The Society's Medal is awarded from time to time to a member of the Society who has made meritorious contributions to the Society's administration, organisation, and endeavours. It was the first initiative of the Society to recognise its members' contributions, deriving in concept from the Society's Money Prize of 1882. In 1943, it was revived (without the money prize) as an award for a member of the Society who had made meritorious contributions to the advancement of science, including administration and organization of scientific endeavour and for services to the Society.

Self-nomination is not allowed.

All Royal Society of New South Wales awards are assessed relative to opportunity. Please complete the details on this form and return together with the requested supporting to the awards-nominations@royalsoc.org.au by 30th September 2021
